YOUR STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM

The International College of Management, Sydney [ICMS] offers a Study Abroad program with full academic transfer to your home institution.

STUDY LOAD

At ICMS you can undertake 3 or 4 subjects during your semester abroad. That's approximately 12-16 hours of class time per week.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

To help you settle in and support you throughout your time at ICMS, experienced academic staff and counsellors are available should you need them.

PROFESSIONAL ENVIRONMENT

The ICMS professional performance program equips students with the self-discipline they will need when they start their careers; whether it be in the way they dress or the way they communicate. Students commencing their studies must bring a business suit for the first day of class. Please visit www.icms.edu.au/ppp for further guidelines.

OPTIONAL HOSPITALITY INTERNSHIP

ICMS is committed to innovation in the delivery of educational programs, and continually strives to improve the experience for students enrolled in study abroad programs. A hospitality internship program has now been added to the ICMS study experience, involving a 120 hour work experience component, which can be completed prior to the commencement of your study abroad program. This internship program is only offered prior to the February study abroad term. This internship option is only open to applicants who are currently studying hospitality/tourism or events at their home University and have completed a previous internship or have work experience in the hospitality industry. This program has a quota and applicants will be assessed for eligibility for the program before they are made an offer. You must apply for the study abroad program first and be made a full offer before you can apply for the internship.

"I enrolled in ICMS as a Study Abroad student for just one term, to get an experience outside the United States in an English speaking country. Then I decided to return to complete the Masters of International Business program. ICMS challenged me to think critically about different global management issues."

SEE THE WORLD WITHOUT EXTENDING THE LENGTH OF YOUR STUDY

They say that travel broadens the mind. If you study while you travel, that's certainly the case. ICMS provides the complete experience.

LIVING IN SYDNEY

Sydney is the state capital of New South Wales. This spectacular city of over 4 million people is widely regarded as one of the world's most liveable cities. An extremely pleasant climate helps; even in mid-winter, temperatures rarely fall below 50°F [10°C], and while mid summer temperatures can occasionally top 97°F [36°C], the average is around 82°F [28°C]. Remember though, that southern hemisphere seasons are opposite to the northern hemisphere.

WHAT A LOCATION!

The ICMS campus will take your breath away. Housed in a magnificent heritage listed building with over 100 years of educational history behind it, ICMS overlooks Sydney's famous Manly Beach and boasts 20 hectares of parkland.

This safe and peaceful environment for study is just a few minutes walk from Sydney's magnificent harbour, and the city itself can be reached in 15 minutes by fast ferry.

TRULY INTERNATIONAL

ICMS has over 1200 students from over 40 countries around the world, offering not just a study experience, but a cultural experience too. Study Abroad students come from as far and wide as the USA, Mexico, Germany, Brazil, Switzerland, Sweden and Norway.

A LIFE EXPERIENCE, TOO

Naturally, you will want to do and see as much as you can while you're in Australia. Here are a few of the activities you might like to consider:

- Walks to nearby Manly, Shelley and Collins Beach
- Surfing
- Beach volleyball
- Scuba diving
- Horse riding
- Day trips to the Blue Mountains and Hunter Valley
- Sailing on Sydney Harbour
- Sports afternoons on campus
- Sydney city sights tours such as the Opera House
- Harbour Bridge climb
- See Australian animals at Taronga Zoo
